

Quarr's new website

Quarr Abbey launched a new website on February 16 this year. The work was designed by Mike Luke of Buckfast Media Studios and funded through our Heritage Lottery grant. Please visit the site at www.quarrabbey.org and please note that this is not the same web address as our old website. As you browse through the pages of this website, you will meet with:

- A community of men who give their lives to searching for God in prayer and work.
- A site of outstanding beauty between countryside and seaside.
- The heritage of nearly 9 centuries of monastic presence since the foundation in 1132 of a house of prayer in this place.
- The unique architecture of the buildings of the new church and monastery built in 1907 for the French Benedictine monks of Solesmes exiled on the Island.
- The accommodation facilities of our guest-house for people wishing to have a time of spiritual retreat. The website has a special enquiry form for the Guesthouse.

The opportunities for those who want to share in the spiritual life of the community by attending the offices, offering a mass, asking for prayers, meeting with a priest or a monk, considering a monastic vocation or becoming an oblate.

- A whole range of activities for visitors and volunteers including the visitor-centre and monastery shop, the art gallery, the tea-shop and farm-shop, the tours of the abbey, the woodland walk, the allotments, the hens, the pigs, and the apiary.
- The possibility to express your support by joining the 'Friends of Quarr' or making a donation to the Abbey. Please note that there are two separate donation portals: one for the Abbey itself and one for the 'Friends of Quarr'.

You can also view our Quarr Abbey Newsletter (QAN) on the website under the 'News and Events' page.
